

The Role of the Junior Representative Officer

Introduction

A Junior Representative Officer is a crucial role for any club. It means that the Club Committee gain genuine feedback from a young perspective and from its junior members. A Junior Representative also encourages junior members to become young leaders in the club; training and giving them responsibilities to assist in coaching and club events.

Responsible to:

- The Club Committee

Responsible for:

- Young Leaders
- And as the young person's voice on the committee, a responsibility for all junior members

Personal qualities and attributes:

- Confident and approachable
- Enthusiastic with a good knowledge of the club's activities
- A strong communicator
- Well organised with great planning skills
- A good listener, with the ability to gain feedback to then share at committee level

Roles and Responsibilities within the club:

- Listen to young people, gaining feedback to help improve their experience at the club
- Attend Committee meetings, contributing from a young person's perspective
- Champion the importance of developing young leaders within the club
- Encourage young people to become young leaders
- Mentor young leaders providing coach assistant training opportunities
- Co-ordinate young leaders to assist in club activities and events

Filename	Author	Release date	Last Revised:	Version
TCARSC_The Junior Rep R&R	Andrew Lloyd	01/02/2024	01/02/2024	1.0